6 The Earlier Prophets: The Prophetic Mission of Elijah and Elisha

2020 Past Papers

- Israel remained a strong and unified kingdom till the reign of King Solomon. After the death of King Solomon the Kingdom of Israel was divided into two kingdoms.
 - (a) In which reign was the Kingdom of Israel divided?

(01 mark)

- (b) Explain three reasons for the division of Israel into two kingdoms and in each reason show its relevance in today's society. (09 marks)
- (a), one of the candidates wrote that the Kingdom of Israel was divided during the reign of Rehoboam the son of Solomon into the Southern kingdom and the Northern kingdom. Likewise, there was a candidate who wrote, "Rehoboam: On the succession of Solomon's son, Rehoboam, the country split into two kingdoms: the Kingdom of Israel (including the cities of Shechem and Samaria) in the north and the Kingdom of Judah (containing Jerusalem) in the south."
- (b), the candidates responded that: (i) Solomon's moral and spiritual failure induced by wanton polygamy led to the LORD's anger, to split the kingdom into two pieces and give it to his neighbour (1Kings 11:1-12). (ii) Rehoboam's failure to seek and act upon good advice from elders on how to answer those who demanded for freedom (1Kings 12:1-20). (iii) Over taxation to supply provisions for Solomon's household. The provision included fat oxen, probably expensive grain fed animals (1Kings 4:7, 22-23). All these development plans were in favour of the southerners. (iv) King Solomon conscripted forced labour out of all Israel; the levy numbered thirty thousand men (1 Kings 5:13-17). Even today, moral, and spiritual failure of leaders can lead to problems such as division. Ignoring wise advice from the elders, as Rehoboam did by favouring the youths who were full of emotions may lead to division. Likewise, if today's small-scale businesspersons, entrepreneurs and peasants are overtaxed, division in the society may occur.

 "Development has sometimes damaged countries ethically and religiously." With reference to Isaiah Chapters 1 to 8, justify this statement by giving five points.

09.	Devolopment when to the positive changes from low stage to high stage socially economically and poli tically. With repensence to Isain chapter I to & it is true that development has sometimes damaged countries
	ethically and religiously;
	Dovelolopment leads to social stratification; Developinent damaged countries ethically and religiously since it brought social statification in which there was the creation of classes. Example it created the class for the nich and the poor in which the poor are discriminated.
	Hence development led to social statification, and Ite
	repowe it damaged countries ethically and religiously.
	Disobictionce to wood. Development brought disobidience to tred because after someone developed or surrected in a certain thing proport about the importance of tred and therefore development domaged the countries ethically and heliquously come it led to disa bidienno to trodi and so it is today.
